

DRAMEKA GRIGGS

SPORTS ADMINISTRATION GRADUATE STUDENT

CONTACT

☎ 678-588-7779
✉ griggsdj@tiffin.edu

PLAYING/COACHING EXPERIENCE

2013 All-American
2012-2013 NCAA Student-Athlete Advisory Committee Representative (SAAC)
Southeast Region Player of the Year/Peach Belt Conference Player of the Year
Rex Mill Middle School Girls' Basketball Assistant Coach (2019-Current)
Jonesboro High School Girls' Basketball Assistant Coach (2016-2019)
Clayton State University Women's Basketball Graduate Assistant (2013-2014)

SKILLS

- TEAM BUILDING AND LEADERSHIP
- ACTIVE LISTENING
- MICROSOFT OFFICE
- PROBLEM-SOLVING

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Rex Mill Middle School – Math 180 Teacher

2018 – Current

Create and adapt weekly lesson plans according to students' academic needs and performances

Enhance the students' learning experience through STEM related interactive experiences

Held/hosted meetings with parents, administrators and team members to address students' behaviors, academics and related support

Atlanta Gladiators

2019-2020

Ensure fans have a first class experience by contributing to fan experience

Assists vendors with their break down and set up before and after games

Float between a number of roles to include ticket sales, greeting, game day store associate and activations

Effectively contribute services in a fast-paced and chaotic environment

United States Army Reserve – Unit Supply Specialist

2016 – Current

Receive, inspect, inventory, store and issue supplies and equipment in a warehouse environment

Perform preventive maintenance on equipment for Army readiness

Maintain a level of organization for all supplies and equipment

EDUCATION

Clayton State University

2010-2014

Bachelor of Science – Criminal Justice

Tiffin University

May 2020

Master of Business – Sports Management